Jackie Garner's

Wildlife art brainteaser

1. Wildlife and art

In this puzzle you need to find a word which, inserted in between the existing words, will reveal one art term and one nature term. It doesn't matter if the art term comes first, or the nature term.

Paint
High
Char
Gold
Mahl
Cobalt

Wood
Scape
Tit
Mould
Insect
Bell

2. Artist's wordsearch

Can you find the listed words? They are always in a straight line but may be forwards, backwards, vertical, horizontal or diagonal.

3. It's a numbers game

In this mini codeword each number corresponds to a letter. Solve the clues and reveal a famous artist.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

45265 gives an animal

219825 gives another animal

6768239 gives a mollusc

4. Bird Riddle

My first is in artist but never in art
My second's in claw; you won't find it in heart
My third starts a bird that's an omen at sea
My fourth's in a bee sting but not in a bee
My fifth is in canvas but not in a frame
My sixth is in fortune but never in fame
My seventh's in fledgling and in duckling too
My eighth starts an ape that you'll see at the zoo
I'm half wildlife, half art – yes, you get the gist,
But you could say my whole doesn't really exist!

19. Art school logic

Four art school students chose different media and subjects. Can you work out who created what, how, and when they finished?

Clues

- The wood carving took longest to finish because its creator was a perfectionist.
- The painting of a Golden Eagle was in acrylics.
- Roberto chose a day course so was finished on Monday.
- Anna's collage wasn't of otters
- Maria chose an elephant as her subject. She didn't like carving, so chose another medium.
- The flowers artwork was finished after the eagle.
